II The 73rd ENGLISH PLAY CONTEST

TIME: 9:35 a.m., Saturday, November 19, 2022

PLACE: Shirayuri Gakuen Junior and Senior High School

PERFORMANCES:

1) The Moment (Shirayuri Gakuen Junior and Senior High School)

Six high school students were trying to put on a dance show at the school festival, but they couldn't make it happen because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Ten years later, they got back together and decided to make the dance show a reality. However, practicing isn't as easy as it was when they were students. Will they be able to overcome the obstacles in their way to make their dream come true and have their moment to shine?

2) Cinderella (Tokyo Metropolitan Kokusai High School)

After losing her father, Cinderella lived in poverty with her stepmother and stepsisters. Meanwhile, she received an invitation to the ball from the royal castle and...

3) Mamma Mia! (Shoei Girls' Junior and Senior High School)

The twenty-year-old bride-to-be Sophie finds out by reading her mother's diary that three men, Sam Carmichael, Harry Bright, or Bill Anderson might be her long-lost father. Dreaming of having her father walk down the aisle with her at her wedding, Sophie sends wedding invitations to the three men, pretending to be her mother Donna. Sophie believes that she will immediately recognize her father out of the trio ... but can she?

4) A Week Away (Toho Girls' Junior and Senior High School)

With nowhere left to go, Will Hawkins finds himself at camp for the first time. His instinct is to run, but he finds a friend, a father figure, and even a girl who awakens his heart. Most of all, he finally finds a home.

PRIZES:

1st Prize: The Moment (Shirayuri Gakuen Junior and Senior High School)

2nd Prize: Cinderella (Tokyo Metropolitan Kokusai High School)

令和4年11月19日(土)、都立両国高等学校において、私立白百合学院高等学校、都立国際高等学校、私立頌栄女子学院高等学校、私立桐朋女子高等学校の4校により演劇が披露され、私立白百合学院高等学校による“The Moment”が優勝した。
